A veritable gem! Qrendi is a traditional village in Malta located in the southern region of the island, and is home to this magnificent Palazzo, having within its boundaries the majestic Neolithic temples of Mnajdra and Ħaġar Qim. This imposing double-fronted Palazzo dating back to the 16th century is a wonderful example of our ancestral craftsmanship, enjoying the many traditional features synonymous of such prestigious homes, including arches, beams, thick walls, niches, wells and so...
