Ta' Sannat is a small village situated along the southern coastline of the sister island of Gozo, well known for its stunning cliffs falling vertically into the Mediterranean Sea, its rich countryside and prehistorical remains, with a prominent archeological find being 'it-Tempju ta' l-Imramma' dating back to 3800 – 3600 BC. This House of Character is one of a cluster of three homes, having been built quite recently to excellent standards, enjoying a lovely mix...
